

Senior Organiser (Adelaide)

Professionals Australia

Full time

The successful candidate will be an experienced union organiser or lead organiser, and will be responsible for implementing and managing campaigns and related activities as part of national and state plans.

Principle Duties

- Developing and implementing comprehensive campaigns
- Digital organising
- Political and stakeholder engagement
- Member advocacy in the community
- Growing union membership and density
- Working with members and delegates to resolve collective workplace and industry issues
- Building leadership structures
- Planning and negotiating enterprise bargaining agreements

Key Selection Criteria

- A commitment to the trade union movement is essential
- High level written and verbal communication skills
- Demonstrated ability to plan and prioritise work
- A general knowledge of the principles and practices of industrial dispute resolution is an advantage
- Ability to work as part of a team
- A desire to work collaboratively with other organisations
- Ability to recruit new members, activists and develop leaders
- Current drivers licence

Conditions of Employment

An attractive salary package will be negotiated with the successful applicant. The successful applicant will be required to start work as soon as practicable.

The union is an equal opportunity employer.

How to apply for this job

Applicants should apply by providing a CV and a cover letter that specifically addresses the key selection criteria to Director, Sarah Andrews sandrews@professionalsaustralia.org.au. Any queries about this position please call Sarah on 0411 124 351.

Applications close 5pm 12 January 2018.